

Process used to identify practices that could be transferred

1. Criteria for good practices
2. Identifying best practices in own region/country and description
3. Bilateral- and transnational meetings to see good practices and identify transfer potential
4. Mobility reports
5. Comparison of transferability
6. Report on examples of good practices that partner countries may transfer = implementation plan