

COMBALL

Quality Criteria

for the identification of good practices

For the identification of successful projects / offers / features in the field of community based living and learning – following criteria must be fulfilled:

ACCESSIBILITY	Barrier Free Physically Visually Auditive EASY TO READ
PERSON CENTRED APPROACH	Respect of individuality Working with the family and the social proximity of the person with ID Increase of the status of the individual person Meet the true needs of the people with ID Truly improve the quality of life of the individual
COMMUNITY BASIS	Benefits the target group and the community (“Give and Receive”) Change the image of people with ID in the eyes of society Added value (benefit for other people in need)
INNOVATION	Engaging & inspiring, interesting for the target group Innovative in terms of local standards Utilization of the latest technology (state of the Art)
SUSTAINABILITY	Measurable outcomes Alternative (sustainable) financing (non-gov.)
NETWORKS & PARTNERSHIPS	Cooperation between Stakeholders / Organisations / Decision makers / Politics